For Sheriff.

Vote for H. G. Spencer for Sheriff, IN-DEPENDENT CANDIDATE, because many of the leading Democrats and Republicans say he is the "right man in the right place."

A vote for A. J. Barnes is a vote for honesty and simple pure Democracy.

Peller, of Kansas, was a populist.
He has become a Republican. Will he have to cut off those lovely whiskers?

Senator Morgan's idea of the money question is rather startling. But it is an easy, if doubtful, way of dropping the 16 to 1 ratio.

Several contemporaries have found out very recently that Hon. James N.
Stubbs of Gloucester, has been nominated for the House. This interesting bit of news was printed in THE GAZETTE a month ago. Read this paper and keep posted.

"It might not be a bad idea to settle the nearer Eastern question by putting a cordon of troops of the powers around Turkey and Bulgaria and forcing them to fight it out to extermination," says the News-Leader. How about a cord(ou) the neck of that measly old Sultan?

Remember that Democrats who are proud of their party, will not ask you as a voter to cast your ballot against Ware, Wynne or Henley. Whether you voted in the primary or not and call yourself a regular Democrat, you are as morally bound to support them as if you actually voted. The primary was only a formality, it was not necessary to make these gentlemen the nominees. The State Committee said that they were the nominees when there was no opposition in the primary. A vote against either of them makes you a bolter as surely as if you had participated in the primary. Regular Democrats will not bolt their party now.
Stand by the nominees.

A DEMOCRAT.

What constitutes a Democrat? The question is so simple that it answers itself. How long must a man vote the ticket before he can be called a Democrat? That is a question that seems to be puzzling some of the straight-laced brethren in this city and county just now.

We have in mind a worthy young gentleman who now offers himself as a candidate for one of the leading offices in the gift of his fellow men, an office of honor, trust and responsibility. There is not a flaw in his personal character, and in his profession stands well. He is a success. But being a young man, with environments different from the present, in 1896 voted for William Mc-Kinley for president. Many other good Democrats also did likewise, we regret to say, but the money question was new and people did not understand it. However, this same young candidate was a worker and voter in local politics for Democratic supremacy. He never faltered in his fight for what was then white supremacy.

Since 1896 this gentleman has affiliated with the Democratic party, both locally and nationally, has contributed liberally of his time, his talents and his means. He has gone into its primaries but never did he go before into a Republican primary. He has stood by its nominees and for seven years has done battle for it valiantly. Like any other American citizen he has a laudable ambition to rise, and on his record as a Democrat, with nothing to hide or conceal, asks in a Democratic primary the support of Democrats. The primary was not of his calling, the constituted authority called it. But he was a Democrat and entered the race. He won, and is the nominee of his party.

THE GAZETTE has never faltered in the support of Democratic nominees. It would not support any man it considered not a loyal Democrat, because it is a principle with us. This gentleman is as good a Democrat as it wants and none can doubt our Democracy.

So we urge the claims of this young gentleman to the suffrages of Democrats, because he is honest. Because he is the nominee of his party and because he is a Democrat. We appeal to the honor of the Democrats of this city and county, and ask for justice, nothing more. If our party is anything at all, its nominees, Sheriff, Treasurer and Commonwealth's Attorney, are worthy of support. Who will knife them?

Substitute Teacher.

At a School Board meeting Tuesday night, Miss Harriet Hankins, daughter of Dr. G. A. Hankins, was elected substitute teacher in Nicholson public school. Miss Hankins is a full graduate of the Normal College of Farmville, and is fitted in every way to assume her responsible duties.

Miss Ida Jones, the regular teacher, is seriously ill. She will not be able to teach this session if she recovers. She is an excellent teacher and the School Board as well as patrons of the school regret that she is so ill.

Prof. R. E. Henderson, the new principal of Nicholson school, is expected soon with his family. The schools open on September 21st, one week from next Monday.

Ten Thousand Churches

In the United States have used the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints.

Every Church will be given a liberal quantity whenever they paint.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy this paint in a can with a paint label on it.

8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight gallons of L. & M., and mix six gallons of pure linseed oil with it.

You need only four gallons of L. & M.
Paint, and three gallons of Oil mixed therewith to paint a good sized house.

Houses painted with these paints never grow shabby, even after 18 years.

These celebrated paints are sold by L. W. Lane & Son, Williamsburg, J.
W. Clements & Co., Lee Hall, W. K.
Branch, Toano.

"Two Fishermen."

Monday two well known citizens of Newport News, Editor C. E. Thacker, of the Daily Press, and Judge J. G. Brown, spent the day fishing at Durley's pond.
The day was an ideal one, and the gentlemen went well prepared—"bait" and everything necessary to exterminate the finny tribe. They spent the whole day, and must have had fine luck. They promised us a bunch of fish, but presume they had to rush to the train to get back home.

MARRIAGES IN RICHMOND AND SMITHFIELD.

The Coming and Going of Peo- ple You Know.

MADDUX—COMPTON.

One of the prettiest weddings that Smithfield has ever witnessed took place Tuesday at noon, when Miss Frances Compton became Mrs. P. H. Maddux.
The ceremony was performed at the Smithfield Methodist church by Rev. J.
B. Moss, the pastor.

The church which was very prettily decorated for the occasion with palms, ferns and potted plants, was filled with the friends of the bride and groom. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Ruth Compton, sister of the bride, who also sang "Oh, Promise Me" very sweetly. Mrs. Physic playing the accompaniment.

The bride, who was given away by her father, the Rev. Robt. A. Compton, pastor of Isle of Wight circuit, was attired in a handsome travelling gown of blue broadcloth. All of the ladies of the party were handsomely gowned and presented a charming picture.

The bridal party consisted of Mr. C.
Haskins, of Chase City, best man, Miss M. Luna Compton, of Smithfield, maid of honor, Mrs. Frank D. Jones, of Blackstone, a sister of the bride, who was matron of honor, Mr. H. N. Phillips, of Williamsburg, first groomsmen, Misses Annie Compton, Ives Borrow and Virginia Underwood, all of Smithfield, bridesmaids, Messrs. Godfrey L. Smith, of Newport News, Calvin P. Jones, and Dr. Samuel A. Kiddick, both of Smithfield, groomsmen, and Messrs. Harry L.
Hibbard, of Newport News, and Carleton Simonson, of Smithfield, ushers.
Miss Mary Joynes and Master George Compton of Smithfield were ribbon holders.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom and those of the bridal party who lived out of town took the O. D. steamer Virginia Dare. Mr. and Mrs. Maddux took the O. D. steamer Princess Anne for New York, whence, after a short stay, they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, at their home in Williamsburg, Va., after which they will return to Chase City where Mr.
Maddux is a prominent and popular druggist.

CLEMENTS—RICHARDSON.

The Broadus Memorial Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 6 P. M. Wednesday, when Miss Nettie Richardson, a popular young lady of Church Hill and Mr. Halstead Maynard Clements, of Lee Hall, Va., were married, the Rev. Clarence P. Stealy, the pastor of the church, performing the ceremony.

Palms and ferns made the very effective altar decorations. Mrs. Leslie Watson presided at the organ and under her touch, the notes of the wedding chorus from Lohengrin sounded as the wedding party entered.

The bride was extremely pretty in white mousseline with picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lynne Moseley, wore white chiffon with pink ribbons. Her sisters were La France roses.

A trio of bridesmaids, Misses Ada A.
Chalkley, Katherine P. Howerton and Lillian P. Clements were gowned in white chiffon. They had cluster showers of maiden hair ferns tied with green ribbons.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Thomas F. Clements and by his ushers, Mr. Leslie H. Reed, Mr.
Clarence D. Newman and Mr. Henry H.
Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clements left for an extended tour to New York, Buffalo, Niagara, Thousand Islands and other points of interest. Mrs. Clements is the daughter of Mrs. H. H. Richardson and a host of friends in Richmond regret the fact that their future home will be at Lee Hall instead of there.

The Newport News Press Wednesday says: "Miss Kitty Taylor, of Toano, is visiting Mrs. N. H. Turner."

Tuesday's Newport News Times-Herald says: "Miss Ida Henley, of Williamsburg, is visiting in the city."

Mr. Arthur H. Palmer, of Newport News, spent Monday here with friends.

Dr. John D. Turner, of Lanexa, was in town Wednesday morning.

A Pretty Home.

Contractor Kemper Taylor, of Toano, has the contract for the erection of a pretty house on Francis street for Mrs.
Viola Ware. The house is to be one of the prettiest and most comfortable in that section of the city. Mr. Taylor has just completed the new bank building at Toano.

A LEADING ATTRACTION.

Virginia Exhibit at the Dane County Fair.

The Richmond News-Leader prints the following:

"The Madison (Wisconsin) Democrat contains the following of interest to all Virginians:

"The exhibit of Virginia farm products brought to Madison by A. H.
Sharpe proved to be one of the most curious as well as interesting exhibits at the Dane county fair, and was admired and favorably commented on by the thousands of farmers and visitors who had the good fortune to see it. Additional interest was given the exhibit from the fact that Mr. Sharpe has during the past two years located several of our best Wisconsin and western families in that famous old and productive State.

"The new growing crop on the large farm known as 'Windsor Shades' contributed some especially fine samples of corn that was a pleasure to look at.

"Windsor Shades is situated twenty-eight miles southeast of the city of Richmond, on the line of the Chesapeake & Ohio, and is only a short distance from Williamsburg. This tract of land, comprising 6,500 acres, was recently purchased by our Madison syndicate, and the farm is now being surveyed and blocked out into small farms to suit the growing demand in that region for homesteads for smaller area. It would seem from reports brought home by some of the stockholders who have visited 'Windsor Shades' that with the productive qualities of the land, fine timber, its excellent location to the seaboard and large neighboring cities, splendid railway and water transportation facilities for handling all products, thereby affording the cheapest possible rates to all eastern markets, fine climate and the many other good qualities with which this section is said to be possessed of, it cannot be long before 'Windsor Shades' will be a thriving village, with the adjacent farms settled, perhaps exclusively, by our energetic and thrifty people, and this seems to be the object in view of our Madison syndicate, to divide the vast tract into small farms and sell on attractive terms to a progressive class of people."

The exhibit spoken of above was gotten up by the L. W. Roberts & Co., real estate dealers of this city. The foregoing article shows to what good purpose this exhibit of farm products has been turned. Thousands of prospective home-seekers in the great northwest have seen what the Peninsula will produce. Now they will come to see for themselves.

Our farm lands can be made as productive as any North or South. Come to Virginia—to the Peninsula.

Mother

"My mother was troubled with consumption for many years. At last she was given up to die. Then she tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was speedily cured."
D. P. Jolly, Avoca, N. Y.

No matter how hard your cough or how long you have had it, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best thing you can take.
But it's risky to wait until you have consumption. Get a bottle of Cherry Pectoral at once.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1.00.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows.

Aid recovery by keeping the bowels in good condition with Ayer's Pills, all vegetable, gently laxative.

Good Advice.

The most miserable being in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Grawling and Burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of Aus-tine's Food for 25 or 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. J. G.
